RESOLUTION No. 9734
apud

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Constitution, the Omnibus Election Code, Republic Act 9164, and other election laws, the Commission on Elections (Commission) may deputize certain departments under the Executive Branch, Government-Owned-and-Controlled Corporations (GOCCs) and Financial Institutions in connection with the October 28, 2013 Synchronized Barangay and Sangguniang Kabataan Elections.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission on Elections, has RESOLVED, as it hereby RESOLVES to deputize, the following departments under the executive branch, government-owned and controlled corporations and financial institutions, and to perform specific duties relative to the conduct of the elections, as follows:

I. THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The Department of Education (DepEd) shall: (a) comply with and enforce all orders and instructions of the Commission relative to the election duties and functions of its personnel; (b) allow the use of public school buildings for election purposes; (c) not to hold, during the election period, conferences, seminars or any school activity, which might interfere, restrict, or prevent the performance of election duties of its personnel, except upon prior written authority of the Commission; and (d) perform such other duties and functions which the Commission may prescribe from time to time.

II. THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance (DoF) shall: (a) comply with and enforce all orders and instructions of the Commission relative to the election duties and functions of its personnel; (b) ensure that all provincial, city, and municipal treasurers remain in their present assignments and neither transferred, detailed, reassigned, whether temporarily or permanently, to another province, city or municipality, during the period from September 28, 2013 to November 12, 2013, except upon prior written authority of the Commission, nor allowed to go on leave of absence from office during the period starting two weeks before and two weeks after election day, except upon prior written approval of the Commission; (c) not designate temporary or casual employee as Officer-in-Charge of the Office of the Treasurer; and (d) perform such other duties and functions which the Commission may prescribe from time to time.

II. THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATIONS

The Department of Transportation and Communications (DOTC) and all offices/agencies under the department shall perform the following duties and functions:

- a. Circularize to all owners and operators of land and air transportation facilities and telecommunications services, holders of certificates of public convenience, franchises or other forms of authorization, that the following provisions under the Omnibus Election Code are election offenses:
 1. Sec. 89, which prohibits any candidate, political party or organization or any person from giving or accepting transportation, free of charge, directly or indirectly during the five (5) hours before and after a public meeting, on the day preceding the election and on election day;
 2. Sec. 95, which prohibits contributions for partisan political activity given directly or indirectly by natural or juridical persons operating a public utility; or by natural or juridical persons who hold contracts or subcontracts to supply the government or any of its agencies, subdivisions or instrumentalities with goods or services or to perform construction or other work; or by natural or juridical persons who have been granted franchise, incentives, exemptions, or allocations or similar privileges or concessions by the government or any of its agencies, subdivisions or instrumentalities including government-owned or controlled corporations; or by natural or juridical persons who within one year prior to the date of the election have been granted loans or other accommodations in excess of P 100,000.00 by the government or any of its agencies, subdivisions or instrumentalities including government-owned or controlled corporations;

3. Sec. 97, which makes it unlawful for any person or organization, whether civic or religious, to directly or indirectly solicit and/ or accept from any candidate for public office or from his campaign manager, agent or representative, or any person acting in their behalf, any gift, food, transportations, contribution or donation in cash or in kind from the commencement of the election period up to and including election day;
 4. Sec. 261 (o), which prohibits the use under any guise whatsoever, directly or indirectly of any printing press, radio or television station or audio-visual equipment operated by the government or by its subdivisions, instrumentalities, agencies or instrumentalities, including government-owned or controlled corporations, or any equipment, facility, apparatus, paraphernalia or vehicle owned by the government or by its political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities, including government-owned or controlled corporations or by the Armed Forces of the Philippines for any election campaign of for any partisan political activity; and
 5. Sec. 261 (dd), which penalizes any operator or employee of a public utility or transportation company operating under a certificate of public convenience who refuses to carry official election mail matters free of charge during the election period.
- b. Direct its agents to apprehend violators of the aforesaid provisions of the Omnibus Election Code and refer such violations to the Commission, through the Regional Election Director or Provincial Election Supervisors, for proper action;
 - c. Require all transportation companies engaged in the operation of transportation facilities to report within thirty (30) days following the day of the election, the use, rental or hiring of their facilities by any candidate, political party, coalition of political parties, or groups or organizations in connection with the election campaign, including the amount paid for such use, rental or hiring, which report shall be submitted to the Regional Election Director of the Region, who in turn shall submit the same to the Law Department, Commission on Elections, Manila, for the purpose of proper accounting and monitoring of expenses under Secs. 100 and 101, respectively, in relation to Sec. 112 of the Omnibus Election Code; and
 - d. Perform such other duties and functions which the Commission may prescribe from time to time.
