FILM SHOWING OF “TULAK”

The Exogian Corporation Production announces the showing of the film, “Tulak”, an advocacy film on the prevention of drug addiction and rehabilitation.

The showing of the film aims to:

1. inform the youth via private and public schools about the drug abuse problem, its ill effects, its consequences and its danger to the individual and the society as a whole;
2. develop self-awareness among the viewers as one’s own possible (unknowing and unwitting) contribution to this drug menace;
3. conduct information campaign for the available free help and rehabilitation for the addicts seeking recovery, and for families affected by the addicts’ addictive behavior, such as Narcotics Anonymous (NA) and Codependents Anonymous (CODA) among others;
4. contribute to a Drug Free Philippines; and
5. exhibit the film in the different Film Festivals abroad, contributing to a Drug Free Resistant World.

The movie is open to all elementary pupils and secondary students from both public and private schools nationwide.
