ADDRESSING THE CHALLENGE OF EDUCATION QUALITY: AN EDUCATION
FORUM SERIES, EPISODE 3

(Invitation for Teachers and School Leaders to Participate)

The Philippine Forum for Inclusive Quality Basic Education (Educ Forum) will host Episode 3 of the Educ Forum Series, Addressing the Challenge of Education Quality on October 7, 2021, Thursday, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The series aims to provide a venue for share updates on ongoing major reform initiated by the Department of Education (DepEd) and its partners to address the challenges in providing quality education and other critical issues. It will also serve as a platform to inform, deliberate on, and refine reform initiatives, and coordinate further actions.

Every episode of the Educ Forum Series shall tackle relevant topics to be presented by the DepEd and/or its partners from the Educ Forum, attached government agencies and education partners including civil society organizations private sector organizations, as well as bilateral agencies and multilateral organizations.

The series successfully launched its first episode last August 26, 2021, with the topic on Curriculum Review Results, and held its second episode last September 9, 2021 discussing Good Practices in Blended Learning.

Teachers and school leaders from public and private schools nationwide are encouraged to participate for greater awareness and public discussion on education issues.

The third episode shall tackle Career Progression, to be presented by the DepEd Bureau of Human Resource and Organizational Development.

All episodes will be shared via livestream with the public through the official accounts of DepEd Philippines:
