ADDRESSING THE CHALLENGE OF EDUCATION QUALITY: AN EDUCATION
FORUM SERIES, EPISODE 4

(Invitation for Teachers and School Leaders to Participate)

The Philippine Forum for Inclusive Quality Basic Education (Educ Forum) will host Episode 4 of the Educ Forum Series, Addressing the Challenge of Education Quality on November 11, 2021, Thursday, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The series aims to provide a venue for sharing of updates on major ongoing reform initiatives by DepEd and its partners to address the challenges in providing quality education and other critical issues. It will also serve as a platform to inform, deliberate on, and refine reform initiatives, and coordinate further actions.

Every episode of the Educ Forum Series shall tackle relevant topics to be presented by the DepEd and/or its partners from Educ Forum, attached government agencies and educational partners, including civil society organizations, private sector organizations, as well as bilateral agencies and multilateral organizations.

The series successfully launched its first episode on August 26, 2021, with the topic on Curriculum Review Results, its second episode on September 9, 2021 with the topic of Good Practices in Blended Learning, and its third episode on October 7, 2021 with the topic on Career Progression.

Teachers and school leaders from public and private schools nationwide are encouraged to participate for greater awareness and public discussion on education issues.

The fourth episode shall tackle the Opportunities and Challenges on Reintroduction of Face-to-Face Classes, to be presented by DepEd and identified partners from the Educ Forum.

All episodes will be shared via livestream with the public through the following official accounts of DepEd Philippines:

1. Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/DepartmentOfEducation.PH>
2. YouTube: https://www.youtube.com/deped_ph
