ANG LARAWAN, THE MOVIE MUSICAL

The Culturtain Musicat Productions Inc. brings to the silver screen Ang Larawan, an adaptation of Larawan, The Musical, which was based on A Portrait of the Artist as Filipino by National Artist for Literature Nick Joaquin. The three-act play has been depicted numerous times on stage and on screen in English and Filipino—making it one of the most pedigreed literary works of the Philippines.

Ang Larawan is “an ode to the passing of the world of truth and beauty and a celebration of the tenacity of the Filipino spirit amidst the rise of materialism and consumerism.” Background and full synopsis is available at www.anglarawan.com.

Ang Larawan received six awards of the 2017 Metro Manila Film Festival: (1) Best Picture, (2) Best Musical Score, (3) Best Production Design, (4) Best Actress, (5) the Gatpuno Antonio J. Villegas Cultural Award, and (6) the Special Jury (Posthumous) Prize for Nick Joaquin during the Gabi ng Parangal held at the Kia Theater in Quezon City on December 27, 2017.

The target viewers are teachers of English, Philippine Literature, Sibika at Kultura, Araling Panlipunan, student-teachers and students, among others. Viewers below thirteen (13) years old must be accompanied by a parent or supervising adult.
